Conceived and designed with the utmost care and innovation to address the needs of the narrow body cabin in Business Class.

Materia is the newest member of the Geven line of seating products, generated from the Geven/Priestmangoode partnership.

The brand-new Materia is the matter behind what matters in making the necessary distinction between the classes.

This new seat is a stylish compact and widely accessorized Business Class, conceived for catering to the needs of the narrow body cabin.

Materia donates Business Class relax mode comfort, stowage spaces and the possibility of accommodating the largest available video screens – all within the less than generous real estate of the single aisle cabin.

Materia makes the narrow body business class experience a matter of passenger comfort that is what matters the most!
